TATTERSALLS RACE DAY

Tattersalls member John Camilleri's horse, "Unearthly", won the Chelmsford Stakes on Tattersalls Race Day, Saturday 4th September. "Unearthly" also won the Group 1 Flight Stakes at Randwick last spring.

John's wife, Debbie, attended the race meeting in Sydney and screamed the stand down when "Unearthly" was posted as the winner of the race in a very close finish. John watched the Sydney race on the big screen from Flemington where another one of his horses, "One World", was running in the Ascot Stakes.

Tattersalls Committeeman, Mr Bob Sanders, presented trophies to Chelmsford Stakes winner Mrs Debbie Camilleri, jockey Corey Brown and trainer, David Payne.

John has been involved with another dozen or so racehorses since "Fairway", including "Unearthly" and "One World" who are racing at present.

He has been a member of Tatts for 10 years and an early morning regular at the gym for quite a while. He admits to being a little slack in getting out of bed over the winter months but will certainly be cranking up again very soon. He has missed the early morning welcomes from Bobby Sanders.

Tattersalls Member, Mr Jim Dickson sashed the winner of the Tattersalls Plate, Don Raphael and Michael Stiles presented the trophy to the winner of the Tramway Handicap, "Nips".

The plans for "Unearthly" are to possibly head towards Melbourne and hopefully earn a start in the Caulfield Cup or Cox Plate.

Purchased in 1999, "Fairway" was the first horse that John owned and what an incredible entree into thoroughbred racing he was. "Fairway" went on to win the AJC Derby (Group 1), Spring Champion Stakes (Group 1), Canterbury Guineas (Group 1), Peter Pan Stakes (Group 2), Gloaming Stakes (Group 2) and also won (Group 2) Turnbull Stakes at Flemington defeating the great mare "Sunline".

Tatts Boardriders made their first foray into "The Shire" mid August for a Sunday morning surf at Wanda beach.

While the weather was perfect, the swell was a little small, but a thoroughly enjoyable morning was had by all who attended, including some new recruits. The obligatory laughs were in abundance, and there was even a close visit from a pod of dolphins that were enjoying the company of our surfers until The Dugong scared them away with one of his wipeouts.

Highlight of the morning was the "after surf" breakfast organised by Renata, Michelle and Matt. The standard has been set by the club's Shire residents. To be handed juice, coffee, and egg and bacon rolls after a hard surfing session is the only way to go.

In October, we are set for the weekend of surfing and golf at Gerrington.

Awards for the Wanda Invitational went to:

Best wave: Ben Dillon (local knowledge)

Showboat Award for Style: "Kahuna"

Best Wipe-out / should have stayed at home Award: Phil (The Dugong) Reichelt (he has a mortgage on this one)

Note that the Yellow T-Shirt award for leading surfer, is up for grabs in Gerrington, because the current holder, Tim Maunsell is unable to surf that weekend.

"Would all TBR's keep a Saturday afternoon free later on this year to attend David Benn's wedding.

Any girlfriend who would spend a cold winter Sunday morning sitting on Wanda beach watching her man surf, would have to be looking for wedding bells."

Happy Surfing.

CALCUTTA AUCTION DINNER

The third Calcutta Auction Dinner was held at the club on Friday, 27th August, 2004. Special guests were Margie Turner and Bruce and Jennifer Fisher from the Prostate Cancer Research Foundation. Margie advised that we now had a "Young Harry" in our world as her daughter Fiona had a baby boy and he is another Harry.

Our auctioneer was Tim Noonan with Alex Pope helping out. Many thanks to them and to all who attended and supported this worthwhile cause.

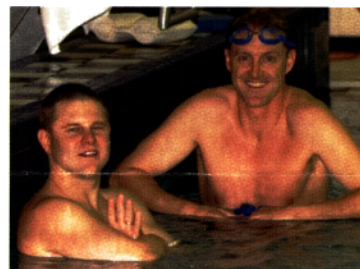

Bidding was brisk and by the end of the night we raised over $5000 for Prostate Cancer and we even had two donations from members unable to attend. We look forward to close racing in the months to come.

Thanks to our Calcutta Handicap Committee and Peter Thiel for all their hard work. Finally thanks to Tattersalls staff for another excellent meal and service on the night. Watch out for more details in the Newsletter and check the board at pool deck for dates of heats.
